Dear Sir (or Madam),

We pride ourselves on the fact that, despite continuous increases in the cost of labour, materials and other expenses over the last eight years, we have not passed on to our customers any part of these increases in respect of our Briar Pipes.

We now find it impossible to maintain the quality of our products, upon which we have built our reputation, without adjustment of prices. In so doing, we have kept these adjustments down to the minimum, and now send you a revised Price List showing the new Trade, Purchase Tax and Retail prices.

This revised Price List is to be read in conjunction with the Illustrated Catalogue that we had the pleasure of sending you in Septemebr last, and we should be obliged if you would kindly substitute this new List for the one already in your possession.

We hope that we may look forward to a continuance of your orders and assure you of the pleasure it is to be of service to you.

Yours faithfully,
THE CIVIC COMPANY LIMITED.

SUNDRIES, WESPHONE, LONDON

October, 1955.

Dear Sir (or Madam),

We hope you will consider our NEW CATALOGUE a "pleasant publication", but its main object is, of course, to be AN EASY REFERENCE to the wide selection of goods we have to offer you.

PIPES.

Foremost, are two of the most famous names in pipes "CIVIC" and "IMPERIAL" but the range of pipes illustrated embodies prices to cover all your requirements, and is well worth going through carefully.

FANCY GOODS.

Twenty five pages are devoted to CIVIC POUCHES, CIGARETTE CASES, TOBACCO JARS, LIGHTERS, HOLDERS and a host of SUNDRIES.

DISPLAY.

Most of our PIPE DISPLAY MATERIAL has been made uniform in material and shape so as to enable you to make BALANCED WINDOW DISPLAYS, and we would like you to refer to PAGE 12, which will be helpful in making your selection when ordering - remembering the very truthful slogan TO DISPLAY is TO SELL.

ORDER FORMS.

We suggest you take one of the ORDER FORMS enclosed, go through the Catalogue page by page and write out your order for the important Christmas selling period RIGHT NOW.

THANKS.

The Directors and Sales Staff assure you of their personal appreciation of your past favours and continue to offer you their best services.

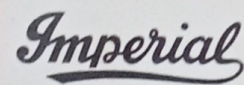

Yours faithfully,
THE CIVIC COMPANY LIMITED.
